

Communications Internship Announcement

ABOUT WETLANDS INTERNATIONAL EUROPE

Established in September 2013, Wetlands International Europe is the single network organisation in Europe bringing together NGOs whose shared mission is to inspire and mobilise society to safeguard and restore wetlands for people and nature. We operate a growing Secretariat, with our key priority to raise the voice of our members in Europe, share knowledge, improve policies and build capacity among stakeholders.

OVERALL PURPOSE OF THE INTERNSHIP

This is an exciting opportunity to inspire the public to take action for Europe's wetlands! The ideal candidate will be a creative thinker, capable of developing digital content (visuals, short videos, stories) and managing various social media channels (LinkedIn and Instagram being the main ones). The post-holder will also support the Communications Officer in promoting and organising major events that we co-organise with our members and partners in Brussels.

Their main responsibility will be the day-to-day management of our social media channels to ensure our audiences' engagement and growth of our visibility in Europe both online and during physical events.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Social media

- Monitor and manage social media channels (Instagram, LinkedIn);
- Write and schedule posts in line with our current projects, news and events;
- Develop dynamic creative content tailored to each channel: carousels, short videos (including drafting scripts, filming and editing), stories etc.
- Assisting in drafting the organisation's social media strategy.

2. Events organisation

- Assist with the organisation of events, physical and virtual;
- Attend virtual and physical preparation meetings, giving inputs and taking notes;
- Ad-hoc support as necessary.

3. External Communications

- Assisting in keeping our website up-to-date;
- Some data and analytics gathering;
- Assisting in drafting and sending our newsletter.
